

You've Got a Friend – Carole King 1971 arr: R. Colyer

When you're down and troubled and you need some love and care,
And nothing, oh nothing's going right, oh-oh
Close your eyes and think of me and soon I will be there
To brighten up even your darkest nights.

You just call out my name and you know wherever I am,
I'll be running to see you again, oh-oh,
Winter, spring, summer or fall,
All you have to do is call,
And I'll be there, yes I will.
You've got a friend.

When the sky above you should turn dark and full of clouds,
And that old north wind begins to blow, oh-oh
Keep your head together and call my name out loud,
And soon you'll hear me knocking at your door.

You just call out my name and you know wherever I am,
I'll be running to see you again, oh-oh.
Winter, spring, summer or fall,
All you have to do is call,
And I'll be there, yes I will.
You've got a friend.
You've got a friend.
